

Wine festival introduces 'exciting new format'

Stellenbosch Wine Festival spokesperson

THE ninth annual Stellenbosch Wine Festival takes on an exciting new format this year, giving soccer fans an opportunity to visit the myriad cellars making up the Stellenbosch Winelands.

From July 1 to 5, visitors will experience the Winelands through an extensive network of shuttles between the participating farms.

Simply park your car at any of the allocated park-and-ride areas, or visit the information centre at Doornbosch to purchase your festival pass and catch a shuttle to the wine farms of your choice.

Participating farms are offering visitors wine tastings and untold activities, including an opportunity to rub shoulders with their favourite winemakers.

With more than 140 wine farms in Stellenbosch and various park-and-ride areas, visitors will have a hard time deciding which cellar to visit next.

Experience a host of wine experiences, entertainment and exclusive winemaker encounters galore. Book your Stellenbosch Festival pass now.

For more information on the Stellenbosch Wine Festival, sponsored by American Express® Cards, call the number in the advertisement on the previous page.

Alternatively, visit the website at www.wineroute.co.za